

The Santero's Miracle

Vocabulary Matching Game

Introduction

The Santero's Miracle is a bilingual book. It uses two languages to tell the story of Andrés and his family. Many of the words used throughout the book are similar despite being from different languages.

What you are going to do

The table below contains English and Spanish words that are similar to one another. Using a pencil draw a line between the words that sound alike.

Before you begin

Think about some words from another language that you may already know that sound similar to the English version.

Matching

family	aire
river	mercado
coffee	entonó
special	milagro
painting	pigmentos
air	especial
market	río
pigments	café
morning	pintando
intoned	familia
miracle	mañana